NIGHT RAIDS ON LONDON HEAVIEST OF WAR

UNITS OF RUMANIAN ARMY ARE REMOVED FROM THE FRONTIER

Supply Depots and State Institutions Also Taken Into Interior—Trouble With Russia in East Aggravated by "Real Acts of Hostility" Attributed to Hungarian Flyers

BUCHAREST, Aug. 28 (CP).—Withdrawal of certain Rumanian army units from the Russian frontier—apparently to avoid border incidents—was disclosed tonight in an army communique, while Rumanian-Hungarian relations were newly strained with the two countries accusing each other of acts of hostility in the air.

The army communique said supply depots and "state institutions" were also moved toward the interior. The announcement, without elaborating, said that the bulk of the army and all Government authorities will now "remain where they are."

There have been numerous reports that Rumanian civilians and officials were quitting the Southern Bucovina and Moldavia areas, which now are surrounded by Russian troops.

MORE TROUBLE

Preoccupied with Russia in the east, Rumania had trouble also in the west, formally accusing the Hungarian air force tonight of "real acts of hostility." Rumania charged a Hungarian bomber was forced down by anti-aircraft fire after it made a bombing and machine-gun attack on a Rumanian civil airport.

Russia, it was officially learned, has reassured Rumania through her minister to Moscow that she wants to avoid border incidents as much as Rumania.

R.A.F. BUSY IN NORTH AFRICA

British Planes Attack Number of Enemy Positions—Alexandria Bombed

CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 28 (CP).—Royal Air Force headquarters issued this communique Wednesday night: "Reconnaissance flights were carried out yesterday in the Kufra area of the western desert by R.A.F. aircraft."

"A successful attack was made yesterday by bombers on shipping in Derna harbor, with direct hits registered. One vessel was seen to be afire both fore and aft. Another was burning when our aircraft left. All our aircraft returned safely."

BUILDINGS ARE HIT

"In a raid carried out on Nocran Island in the Red Sea district, direct hits were registered on buildings."

"A formation of Blenheim attacked Hattara, Ethiopia. Bombs were dropped in a motor transport yard and on barrack buildings."

"A large motor transport compound was raided at Desale, Ethiopia, and direct hits were registered on buildings and vehicles in the compound. Two fires were started."

ALEXANDRIA RAIDED

CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 28 (CP).—Alexandria, British naval base, and Port Said, at the northern entrance to the Suez Canal, were raided by enemy aircraft early today, but no damage was caused and there were no casualties, a British naval communique announced.

It was the first raid of the war upon Port Said.

King and Queen Keep to Schedule

LONDON, Aug. 28 (CP).—The King and Queen did not allow an air raid alarm to interrupt their scheduled departure last night for an inspection tour in Northern England. It was disclosed today, German raiders circled the London area when their Majesties left Buckingham Palace and motored to the station through blacked-out streets.

London House Struck by Nazi Bomb

An almost direct hit by a Nazi bomb demolished this house on the outskirts of London. Air raid precaution firemen have extinguished the flames. These firemen are constantly on the alert to rush to any part of their territory and quench incendiary fires. This photo was cabled from London to New York.

British Bombers Start Huge Fire In Berlin Attack

German Capital Experiences Sharpest Air Attack Of War—Planes Cross Over City Repeatedly—Kiel and Wilhelmshaven Dockyards Heavily Bombed—Italian Factories Under Fire

BERLIN, Aug. 29 (AP).—British bombers crossed and recrossed the city early today, and from the heart of the city a great glow was seen in the Southeastern sky—apparently from a great fire set by the raiders.

An authorized spokesman claimed a house was struck and burned during the raid, which lasted two hours and fifty-four minutes. At the end of the first hour of the attack the glow of fires was visible in Central Berlin and it was apparent the aircraft still were circling the western suburbs.

Suburban anti-aircraft artillery set up a great banging. Most guns in the heart of the city remained silent during the raid.

The glow in the Southeastern sky remained many minutes. The raiding planes were followed by searchlights and sharp flashes of exploding shells as they crossed back and forth across the city.

German officials claimed ten persons were killed and about thirty injured by bombs during the raid. The greatest destruction apparently was in the western suburbs.

At the end of the first hour of the attack the glow of fires was visible in Central Berlin and it was apparent the aircraft still were circling the western suburbs.

He said the broadcasts amused Crown Princess Martha of Norway, who, with her three children, were passengers. "None of us got excited," the captain added. "We have 10,000."

Two Escaped German War Prisoners Being Hunted Near Sudbury

Fellow Internees Aid Flyer and Naval Petty Officer To Gain Freedom—Were Partly Buried in Trench During Football Match

SUDBURY, Ont., Aug. 28 (CP).—Police dogs led armed posses tonight in a widespread search for two German prisoners of war—a flyer and a naval petty officer—who tricked their guards and escaped from an internment camp in this Northern Ontario district on Tuesday night.

Throughout the day police and prison guards combed miles of rugged country of bush, lakes and rock without finding definite trace of the fugitives, although there were numerous reports of their having been "seen" at widely-separated points.

Old-timers, wise in the ways of the bush country, predicted hunger would soon drive the Germans to surrender unless they receive outside assistance of food and shelter.

District police received reports of a brilliant flare that shot skyward near the prison camp shortly after the delivery, and they theorized it may have been a signal to the escapees from friends prepared to aid them.

The fugitives are Theodor Steyer, twenty-nine, a non-commissioned officer of the German navy, and Hans Kibart, twenty-five, an aviator.

TO ESTABLISH ARMY CORPS

All-Canadian Force to Be Formed When Second Division Ready

OTTAWA, Aug. 28 (CP).—An all-Canadian army corps will be formed in England under Lt.-Gen. A. G. L. McNair as soon as the training of the Second Division of the Canadian Active Service Force is completed, "and that would be very long," Defence Minister Ralston said today.

The minister also announced the concentration of the 3rd Division in the Maritime Provinces between October 1 and 15. Bren gun production was progressing satisfactorily and a tank committee had been set up to deal with the perfection and production of a new tank, he said.

The 3rd Division will be fully equipped with motor transport, field guns (18 pounders), howitzers and Lewis or Bren machine guns. An artillery range has been acquired near Tracadie, N.B.

By December 15, the minister said, Continued on Page 15, Column 3

INDIANS WANT MEDICAL AID

Gather at Port Alberni to Voice Grievances Against Federal Department

PORT ALBERNI, Aug. 28 (AP).—All-Indian unrest in the Federal Department of Indian Affairs in the matter of medical aid for their families, representatives of many bands and tribes of Indians were in Port Alberni today to obtain legal assistance to present their case to the authorities at Ottawa. They said they would stay in the city until they received a satisfactory reply to their complaints.

Gordon Campbell, barrister, was retained to represent the bands, whose complaints were contained in a four-page statement. The document alleges that within the past week two Indian women had died because they were unable to secure hospital treatment. The two women, the statement said, were Mrs. Johnson Ginder, of the Ojibwa band, and Mrs. William Munday, of the Uclulet band. It was further alleged the women were taken to Port Alberni for the purpose of entering the medical ward of the West Coast Hospital, but admittance was refused and the women were cared for by Sashah Indians at the reserve and later died.

The Indians claim the women would have lived if they had been given hospital care. According to the statement, Indians had for years received hospital care for themselves and dependents, but recently that privilege had been cancelled. The Indians claim they contributed to the fund to build the hospital on the understanding they would have certain rights with regard to hospitalization. The Indians are demanding that those rights be restored by the Department of Indian Affairs.

It was stated last night many more Indians were on their way here and would remain until something was done.

Nazi Airmen Drop Bombs at Random in Seven-Hour Battle

From Europe Day by Day—THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

(Copyright, 1940, by Southam Co.)

Dealing with the Nazi air raids on London, The Times says what bombing has been done has been indiscriminate. It appears chiefly to have a nuisance value and to be intended, by destroying the night of rest of workers, to lower production in the war factories.

Expert opinion, however, expects an extension of these night raids, in which the Germans so far, however, have had little training. The Germans will certainly be limited by no such restriction to military objectives as that observed by the Royal Air Force.

Hitler's orders to the Hungarians to endeavor Africa to settle their quarrel with Rumania over the recovery of the former Magyar territory comes from his desire to devote all his energies to getting his plans into gear on the Western Front. Hostilities in Eastern Europe would prevent him drawing a maximum of supplies of raw materials and foodstuffs from both Rumania and Hungary. There are signs in Budapest, however, of a growing desire for war.

The Italian Armistice Commission has been allowed to pass through Turkey on its way to Syria to present the Italian German demands to the French generals and civil heads of the administration there.

The French have forced the British consul to leave. It is believed that the main object of the Italians is to stir up the Syrian Arabs against the British in Palestine by means of bribery and intrigue.

The Pope is considering suspension of the Vatican newspaper Osservatore Romano, after ninety years of publication. It has been attacked by Italian Fascists because it gave all sides in the war news impartially. It may be replaced by a religious and cultural journal to be run by the Jesuits.

Enemy Turns Back Rather Than Engage

VALETTA, Malta, Aug. 28 (CP).—A formation of enemy planes approached Malta this morning, but turned back upon sighting British aircraft awaiting them.

Authorities here reported total British losses in the defence of Malta to date were two planes against some twenty-seven enemy either destroyed, or so damaged they probably were unable to reach their bases.

There has been a marked decrease in air activity against Malta in the last four weeks.

CHUNGKING, Aug. 28 (CP).—The Chinese Government formally declared tonight its determination to send troops into French Indo-China should the Japanese enter that colony "under any pretext or under any conditions with a view to attacking China." The statement made by Foreign Minister Wang Chung Hui warned that the French Government "could not evade responsibility for all the consequences."

LAVAL AIMS AT CHANGES IN FRENCH CABINET

Small Number of Persons Killed and Some Buildings Damaged After Attackers Succeeded in Passing Inner Defences—Dozen Towns in England and Wales Attacked

Twenty-Four Enemy Planes Shot Down During Daylight Fighting

LONDON, Aug. 29 (CP).—A small number of fatal injuries resulted from German air attacks on London during the night when raiders "dropped bombs at random," it was announced officially this morning. In the London area houses, shops and a church were damaged, said a communique issued by the Ministries of Air and Home Security. There also were fatalities in a Midland town and in a number of towns in the Northeast and Northwest and in other parts of the country. The communique said:

SINGLY AND IN SMALL GROUPS
"Enemy air attacks on this country last night began about 9 o'clock and continued until shortly before dawn, a considerable number of enemy aircraft operated singly or in small groups over many parts of England and over South Wales."

"Single enemy aircraft flew over the London area from time to time and some of them dropped bombs at random. Some damage was done to houses, shops and other buildings, including a church."

"Fires which resulted were brought under control, some of them by wardens with stirrup pumps. Some casualties were caused, including a small number of fatal injuries."

"In a Southwestern town the water supply was interrupted as the result of damage done to a water main by a bomb."

DAMAGE IN MIDLANDS

"In a Midland town bombs caused damage to a number of dwelling houses and to industrial property. There were a number of casualties, of which some were fatal."

"Bombs were also dropped in a number of towns in the Northeast and Northwest, where industrial property, houses and other buildings were damaged. The casualties reported from all these towns are not numerous, but include some deaths."

"Reports so far received indicate that elsewhere many incendiary bombs and some high explosive bombs were dropped. The majority of them fell in country districts and did no damage. Some, however, fell in urban areas and damaged buildings and caused small fires."

"So far as is known the total casualties resulting from these bombs were small in number, although some were fatal."

LONGEST ALARM OF WAR

LONDON, Aug. 29 (CP).—German raiders roared over London during the longest air alarm of the war early today, dropping explosive, incendiary and "scream" bombs in some areas, while other enemy formations mushroomed over more than a dozen towns in England and Wales.

The sprawling capital and heart of the Empire was in a state of siege for more than seven hours as the raiders circled it into the pre-dawn hours. The all-clear signal finally was sounded shortly after 4 a.m.

Long white searchlight beams raked the skies of the metropolis in the most brilliant display yet witnessed. The impression of spectacle was heightened by the distant noise of explosions and the flashes of the anti-aircraft fire.

BEST ON TWIN PURPOSES

The impression observers had was that the third successive "nuisance" raid on London was being combined by the enemy with "business." The outskirts of the capital seemed to be getting a certain amount of pounding.

The irregular beat of German motors was heard high overhead at frequent intervals. Sometimes roof watchers counted as many as four.

TWO KILLED BY GAS EXPLOSION

Unexplained Disaster When Repairing Pipe Line Injures at Least Thirteen Others

BUFFALO, Okla., Aug. 28 (AP).—A terrific explosion on a Phillips Petroleum Company gasoline pipeline, seventeen miles east of here, killed two workmen tonight and burned thirteen others, at least two critically.

O. P. Miller, superintendent of the Buffalo booster station, one mile from the scene, said a great fire which broke out after the blast trapped two of the workmen. Their bodies had not been recovered shortly before midnight.

Two other men, badly torn and burned, were reported dying in a hospital here. The others were taken in ambulances to Woodward, Laverne and Shattuck.

The workmen were repairing a leak in the line, which extends from Borger, Texas, to St. Louis, Mo. Company officials said they had not determined the cause.

Local Men Will Take Compulsory Training In Gordon Head Camp

New Military Centre Being Constructed to House 1,000 Draftees—October Call Will Affect Approximately 250 Men in Victoria Riding

VICTORIA men called up for compulsory military training under national defence plans will go into camp at the new Gordon Head camp, according to an announcement made yesterday by Brigadier C. V. Stockwell, D.O.C. Military District No. 11. Lieut.-Col. T. B. Monk will be camp commandant.

Construction work on the Gordon Head site, which is on the old Tractor property once considered by the city for an airport, is being rushed. Hutments will be constructed and the camp organized on a permanent basis to handle the thousands of men who will attend there for thirty days' military training.

Draftees from all over Vancouver Island will probably be sent to

CALL AFFECTS 250 MEN

An estimated 250 single men twenty-one years of age in the Victoria riding are subjected to the call for compulsory military training, according to the national registration taken here a week ago.

They are part of the group of 3,627 single or widowed men between the ages of nineteen and forty-five who registered in this constituency. Groups next subject to call, by ages and approximate numbers, are: Twenty-two years, 240; twenty-three years, 250; twenty-four years, 270; twenty-five years, 220; twenty-six years, 230; twenty-seven years, 195; twenty-eight years, 130; twenty-nine years, 120.

This makes up a total of 1,900 men under thirty years of age subject to call within the next year, who must take thirty days' military training to prepare them for the defence of Canada. Overseas service remains on a voluntary basis.

CAMPS OPEN OCTOBER 9

OTTAWA, Aug. 28 (CP).—The first 30,000 men called up for thirty days military training under the mobilization act, it is expected, will move into camp on October 9. Defence Minister Ralston told a press conference today. By that date they will have been selected and given physical examination.

What age class other than the twenty-one-year-class will be called up at that time will depend on the number of men this class will provide. The boards that will control the drafts in each military district will be notified of the number of men required there to provide the thirty-nine training centres with 30,000 men.

TWO PERIODS THIS YEAR

Plans call for two training periods of thirty days each before the new year. A space will be allowed after the first classes have completed their training and before the second camps start to give departmental officials and army officers an opportunity to weigh the results of the first training period.

NATIONAL WAR SERVICES DEPARTMENT

will provide transportation of the men from their homes to the training centres.

Plans provide to train 30,000 men each time, the minister said. "Should some of the camps which have been provided to house Canadian Active Service troops later become vacant, then the 30,000 might be increased by using these camps."

Print Jubilee Hospital Appeal in Silver

In the above picture, taken at a downtown street intersection yesterday, is shown an incident typical of many in connection with the Jubilee Hospital's campaign for funds to complete financing the new hospital extension that is to add many more beds to the institution. A lad smilingly adds his dime to the "printing" on the bedspread, which is already covered with bills and silver.

every gun in the place started opening up

He tried going to 300 feet, but the guns banded away, so he flew low over the town at 100 feet.

The front and rear gunners blazed away at points of fire on the ground, using up about 3,000 rounds. The pilot continued at 100 feet while he tried to head west. There was a terrific barrage in that direction.

"I just hoped to get out of it but I must say I never really expected we would," he said. "We went south zig-zagging all the time. We got about fifteen miles away and then although they still shot at us we were able to gain height. Finally we got away."

MAINS WORKS STRUCK

In the raids on the Fiat works at Turin one pilot saw two of his high explosive clusters fall squarely on the main works.

"Later over fifty incendiary bombs were scattered over the target area and within a short space of time a large fire was observed. Half an hour later the fire was still burning fiercely and was plainly visible from a height of over 15,000 feet."

The Marelli Magneto factory at Sesto San Giovanni also was raided. Oil tanks on the Gloride River mouth near Bordeaux in German-occupied France, at Pallac near Brest, and at Cherbourg also were bombed.

One British bomber failed to return.

U.S. SENATE PASSES BILL

The details of these preparations were reported to the Senate tonight, a few hours before the vote, by Senator Sherman Minton, Indiana Democrat, who said he had them from an officer of the general staff.

SPEEDY REGISTRATION

Fifteen days after the measure becomes law is to be registration day, and forty days later the first of the conscripts are to be in the training camps, according to Minton's outline.

A schedule has been drawn up envisioning conscription of about 400,000 men by the end of the year; 400,000 more on April 1, 1941, and similar half-yearly increments until October 1, 1944.

By this process, the military officials plan to have available at the end of five years a total of 4,000,000 trained men in the active service or in the reserves into which the conscripts pass after their period of service.

One of the last amendments adopted by the Senate on a 69-to-16 vote would empower the Government to take over manufacturing plants necessary for defense purposes.

The Senate adopted an amendment extending present 7 and 8 per cent profit limitations on Government contracts for ships and airplanes to contracts for weapons, ammunition and other military equipment as well.

different searchlight concentrations. When the criss-crosses of slender beams from the searchlights focussed on one point for a moment it gave one the effect of standing under a huge dome resting on shimmering silver rafters.

ATTACKS COSTLY TO ENEMY

The raiders reached London following a costly and unsuccessful day of attempts to penetrate the city's defences in which the enemy paid with twenty-four planes to Britain's twelve. Four R.A.F. pilots were known to have bailed out safely.

One raider dropped six high-explosive bombs over a northeast town, killing one woman and injuring several persons seriously; four bombs were dropped in one northwest town and twelve bomb explosions were counted in one southeast England point.

The raiders filled London's night with the crash of bursting bombs and the clang of fire engines rushing to blazes started by incendiary bombs.

The continuous sound of German planes at the height of the raiding parties clearly the Luftwaffe was sending over relays in greater force than ever before.

Crowds in Piccadilly Circus in downtown London heard the anti-aircraft guns blazing away at the raiders.

A series of heavy explosions indicated bombs had been dropped in the metropolitan area.

In Mid-London, the crash of bombs was plainly audible from one direction after another.

Fire-fighting apparatus could be heard clattering through the blacked-out streets.

In one area where fire broke out firemen were upon it immediately and reported it under control.

Most operators of taxis and buses pulled to the curb when it developed that this was no "one-plane" raid. Incendiary bombs fell in London suburbs, but first reports indicated there had been little damage.

It was the fifth consecutive night of raids, and the worst.

EXPLOSIONS HEARD

A continuous series of flashes on the city's eastern horizon was visible from the centre of London. Especially big flashes were seen just as two of the raiders passed over the city. Explosions followed.

London's defence was the most spectacular of the war. The greatest concentration of searchlights ever seen here laced the sky with a hundred beams, and anti-aircraft fire resounded throughout the city.

Bombs were loosed upon at least two southeast towns and on one in the industrial Midlands. Reports from outlying sections reaching here indicated Nazi planes were over these islands in the hundreds.

Just before midnight four consecutive explosions from bombs were heard in the London area.

A deep, rolling series of heavy explosions was heard in one part of the city after searchlights had pursued a single raider across the sky.

SILENCE THEN BLASTS

There were a few moments of silence; then a second series of explosions rumbled from another sector.

For one southwest town upon which bombs fell it was the sixty-second raid of the war.

The Air Ministry disclosed the raiders had attempted to penetrate the central defenses all afternoon, but that the only important damage they were able to cause was to a Thames Estuary town. The morning also witnessed constant but ineffectual attacks in this pathway to London.

The Germans attacked, also, in other areas of Britain, but it was between the region of Dover and the Thames Estuary that their major efforts were made.

OVERSEAS LEAGUE

Owing to the Labor Day holiday, the regular meeting of the Overseas League will be held on Tuesday, September 3, at the Empress Hotel at 2:30 p.m., when Mr. H. J. Pendray will give an illustrated travel talk on Denmark, Holland and Sweden. Sir Robert Holland, who will leave for India on September 6, will also speak.

FINGER-PRINTING IS COMPULSORY

Visitors From Canada to United States Required to Submit to Process

OTTAWA, Aug. 28 (CP).—All Canadian residents and British subjects domiciled in Canada visiting the United States now are required to be finger printed. Those visiting in the United States for less than twenty-nine days have one finger printed. Those staying longer than that have all four fingers and thumb printed.

To simplify border crossing for temporary visitors, the United States Government last week-end announced that identification cards, in addition to passports, would be required of Canadians crossing the border daily or intending to stay in the United States less than twenty-nine days.

It was explained by the United States legation here there would be no formal finger printing. By formal finger printing, however, is meant the taking of prints from all five digits, the legation explained today. Persons obtaining identification cards are required to make a print of the right index finger on the card.

KIEL DOCKYARD ATTACKED
LONDON, Aug. 29 (CP).—Britain's long-distance bombers apparently were in German skies early today on new bombing missions after striking suddenly and swiftly at the Kiel naval dockyard early Wednesday—almost a year after their similar lightning raid on that objective at the war's outbreak.

Silent broadcasting stations in the Reich and an air raid alarm in Berlin today indicated the Royal Air Force was maintaining its systematic raids.

The Tuesday night and Wednesday morning bombing of Kiel and the Wilhelmshaven naval base was heavy. The Air Ministry press service said pilots and crews described on return how bombs straddled a mole, and were seen to burst in other parts of the area.

Heavy explosions after one attack culminated in a huge fire, a mass of black smoke suggesting an oil store had been ignited.

Fifteen minutes after leaving their target area members of another crew could see the fire which resulted from the bombing. Another raider reported "five large fires were started."

While these bombers were in German skies another group of long-distance R.A.F. raiders, flying through freezing temperatures over the lofty Alps, again dumped heavy explosives on the Fiat Motor works at Turin in Northern Italy.

During the raid on Kiel one pilot came down to 800 feet over the docks and dropped his bombs.

He reported no enemy activity while coming down to the target until a searchlight picked them up and then "suddenly we seemed to be in the centre of the biggest collection of anti-aircraft bursts and searchlights I've ever seen." He dropped a flare but with all the "ack-ack" fire coming up he had no chance to see what happened.

The pilot kept manoeuvring made out the shape of the mole and went down in a dive.

"We got up a dickens of a speed. I estimate we were doing about 350 miles per hour on the clock," he said. "When we got down to about 8,000 feet they had about fifteen searchlights on us."

DEFENCE FIRE HEAVY

The anti-aircraft fire was heavy but the pilot went through it. At 800 feet the load was dropped, the plane swooped to within 100 feet of the mole.

Suddenly he saw the trees coming up straight ahead, illuminated by the searchlights that were trying to catch him. He pulled the aircraft up and it went over the top. The pilot said he did not dare to go up too high because as soon as he did

every gun in the place started opening up.

He tried going to 300 feet, but the guns banded away, so he flew low over the town at 100 feet.

The front and rear gunners blazed away at points of fire on the ground, using up about 3,000 rounds. The pilot continued at 100 feet while he tried to head west. There was a terrific barrage in that direction.

"I just hoped to get out of it but I must say I never really expected we would," he said. "We went south zig-zagging all the time. We got about fifteen miles away and then although they still shot at us we were able to gain height. Finally we got away."

MAINS WORKS STRUCK

In the raids on the Fiat works at Turin one pilot saw two of his high explosive clusters fall squarely on the main works.

"Later over fifty incendiary bombs were scattered over the target area and within a short space of time a large fire was observed. Half an hour later the fire was still burning fiercely and was plainly visible from a height of over 15,000 feet."

The Marelli Magneto factory at Sesto San Giovanni also was raided. Oil tanks on the Gloride River mouth near Bordeaux in German-occupied France, at Pallac near Brest, and at Cherbourg also were bombed.

One British bomber failed to return.

The details of these preparations were reported to the Senate tonight, a few hours before the vote, by Senator Sherman Minton, Indiana Democrat, who said he had them from an officer of the general staff.

SPEEDY REGISTRATION

Fifteen days after the measure becomes law is to be registration day, and forty days later the first of the conscripts are to be in the training camps, according to Minton's outline.

A schedule has been drawn up envisioning conscription of about 400,000 men by the end of the year; 400,000 more on April 1, 1941, and similar half-yearly increments until October 1, 1944.

By this process, the military officials plan to have available at the end of five years a total of 4,000,000 trained men in the active service or in the reserves into which the conscripts pass after their period of service.

One of the last amendments adopted by the Senate on a 69-to-16 vote would empower the Government to take over manufacturing plants necessary for defense purposes.

The Senate adopted an amendment extending present 7 and 8 per cent profit limitations on Government contracts for ships and airplanes to contracts for weapons, ammunition and other military equipment as well.

FIRST THILICUM TROOP

A concert and dance, sponsored by the First Thilicum Rover Crew and Scout Troop, will be held in St. Martin's Hall, Obed Avenue, tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. Featured on the programme will be a harmonica band, conducted by F. Lavery; Frank Merryfield, the Cornish Wizard, and the Three Canucks.

FINGER-PRINTING IS COMPULSORY

Visitors From Canada to United States Required to Submit to Process

OTTAWA, Aug. 28 (CP).—All Canadian residents and British subjects domiciled in Canada visiting the United States now are required to be finger printed. Those visiting in the United States for less than twenty-nine days have one finger printed. Those staying longer than that have all four fingers and thumb printed.

To simplify border crossing for temporary visitors, the United States Government last week-end announced that identification cards, in addition to passports, would be required of Canadians crossing the border daily or intending to stay in

B.C. LIBRARY CHANGES HANDS

Dr. Kaye Lamb Leaving on Friday to Take Up Duties at University

Leaving Victoria on Friday, after several years' association with the Province in his work as archivist and librarian of the Provincial Library, Dr. Kaye Lamb will hand over his duties here to C. K. Morrison, librarian, and to Willard Ireland, archivist, his successors.

Dr. Lamb expressed his regret at saying farewell to the provincial institution of which he has been in charge, but recalled that his work with the University of British Columbia would leave him many opportunities of remaining in touch with a wide circle of friends and acquaintances made here.

As already announced, the positions of provincial librarian and archivist united in the services of Dr. Lamb will now be separated. Dr. Lamb is leaving to accept a post as librarian at the University of British Columbia, returning to the institution from which he graduated.

OTTAWA, Aug. 28 (CP).—The season for herring fishing on Vancouver Island and in the waters between the island and the mainland of British Columbia opens September 1, it was learned today from the Fisheries Department. The season usually opens about September 30 and closes early in February, depending on the size of the catch. Other British Columbia waters are open to herring fishing throughout the year, except in special cases.

United States Will Enter War Soon, Says Major F. R. Burnham

Famous Scout and Soldier Makes Prediction at United Services Institution Dinner Held in His Honor Here

"OUR sympathies are yours, and without a doubt we will be in the war right behind you," said Major F. R. Burnham, D.S.O., of Los Angeles, at the United Service Institution dinner given in his honor in the Empress Hotel last night.

"One of the main purposes of my trip to Canada," said Major Burnham, "was to gain first-hand knowledge of the manner in which Canada was preparing for war, and profit by any mistakes you might make here, and that we can therefore avoid in the United States."

"The lethargic state of mind of the American people is shameful to a degree," the speaker continued, "particularly when it is possible for us to be attacked from Asia over the roof of the world, as evidenced by the flight made by the Russian flyers just a short while ago."

"However, we of the West Coast are waking to the possibilities of war, and I hope that the awakening will soon be nationwide," the speaker continued.

FAMOUS SCOUT

Major Burnham, who has been described as the "greatest living Scout," attained world-wide fame by his deeds in the South African wars. Frontiersman, sheriff, cowboy, Scout, miner, Indian fighter, and soldier, Major Burnham is returning to his home in California after living in Edmonton, stopping here for a week's holiday en route.

In speaking at the dinner last night, Major Burnham spent a good part of the evening reminiscing on South African days, many of those attending the dinner having served with him, or in the same countries in which he has seen action.

There was a large attendance at the meeting, including many military men of Victoria. Seated at the head table were Rt. Rev. H. E. Sexton, Bishop of Columbia; Dr. T. A. Rickard; Hon. W. J. Asselstine; Lieut.-Col. Walter Bapty; Lieut.-General Sir Percy Lake; K.C.B., K.C.M.G.; Sir Richard Lake, K.C.M.G.; Major Burnham, and Col. H. T. Goodland, president of the United Services Institution and chairman of the meeting.

The speaker was thanked for his address by Dr. Rickard, who proposed a toast to Major Burnham.

ENTERTAINMENT

A programme of light entertainment was provided during the evening by James McGrath, who sang "There'll Always Be an England," "The Road to Mandalay," and gave a rendition from Shakespeare's "Henry VIII," and a monologue, entitled "Battle of Hastings." He was accompanied on the piano by P. H. Hughes.

TWO EVACUEES ARE KILLED IN ENGLAND

LONDON, Aug. 28 (CP).—One of those killed in last night's air raids on England was a twelve-year-old boy who had been evacuated from London for a "safer" place in Southeast England.

The boy and a nineteen-year-old girl were killed when a bomb fell in the garden of the home in which they were living.

FIRE RAZES BARN AT ONTARIO HOSPITAL

HAMILTON, Aug. 28 (CP).—Fire, which started in a horse barn, destroyed five large barns at the Ontario Hospital, Mount Hamilton, here today. A high east wind fanned the flames but carried the smoke and sparks away from the main hospital buildings which house nearly 1,800 patients. The patients remained quiet on the grounds. The loss was not estimated immediately.

VICTORIA BOY IN BIG FIGHT

J. Moloney, R.A.F., Left in France After Dunkerque Evacuation

JOHN MOLONEY

English mails are still making good time, across the Atlantic, as a letter less than two weeks old just received by Harry Moloney, 1214 Hampshire Road, Victoria, shows.

The letter is from his brother, John, a sergeant with a squadron of the Royal Air Force, now in England. Young Moloney left here two years ago last June for England to train with the R.A.F., being one of the lads whom Captain Seymour-Biggs assisted in getting accepted, although Moloney paid his own way over. As an armorer with his squadron he left England for France four days after war was declared last September, and returned to England for the first time after the evacuation of Dunkerque.

"Our squadron sure knocked holes in the Jerries during our last month in France," he writes. "We had 150 confirmed victories, and only lost six pilots. We traveled right across France during May and June, stopping at aerodromes for a day or so, and then moving on. During one period of five days we got only two hours sleep, and were being bombed and machine-gunned all the time."

"Most of the German bombing is rotten, but their dive-bombing puts the fear of God into you. You can hear and see the bombs coming down at you in a vertical dive for thousands of feet. The refugees jammed every road in France for a month, a solid stream of them, and we saw hundreds of them slaughtered. They didn't seem to have enough sense even to lie down in a ditch."

"DIRTY TRICKS" "The Jerries were up to all the dirty tricks in the world. They put French and British markings on their planes, and even used our

HARDWOOD MEN MEET IN CITY

Victoria Is Convention Centre
for Various Organizations This Week

One convention ended its sessions
here yesterday as preparations for two others to be held in Victoria
this week got under way.

The two-day conference of the Washington State regional section of the Equitable Life Assurance Society at the Empress Hotel ended yesterday afternoon, and three-score delegates and their wives
prepared to return to their homes in Seattle and Spokane. Gordon Hockaday, of Spokane, was the closing speaker, discussing fundamental reasons for life insurance.

Opening this morning at the Empress, delegates to the Pacific Coast Hardwood Wholesalers' convention will begin a three-day discussion of hardwood problems of the Pacific Coast.

Norman C. Sayers, vice-president and general manager of the J. Fyfe-Smith Company, Vancouver, will preside over the sessions, which will be attended by hardwood men
from San Diego to Vancouver.

DOCTORS TO MEET

Tomorrow and Saturday, the conference of the North Pacific Society
of Internal Medicine will be held,
also at the Empress Hotel, presided over by Dr. Blair Holcomb, of Portland, and attended by Dr. Stuart G.
Kenning, the only Victoria member of the society.

Fifty medical men from Washington, Oregon and British Columbia will take part in the discussions, and
the guest speaker is Dr. Arthur C.
Curtis, associate professor of internal medicine at the University of Michigan Medical School.

CONVENTION NEXT WEEK

On September 5, between 250 and 300 members of the "100,000 Club"
of the New York Life Insurance Company, and their wives, will gather at the Empress Hotel for a three-day convention.

It is the annual convention of the Western and Pacific departments of the club, and will be the eighth held in Victoria since 1918. Alex Peden, Victoria representative, stated yesterday.

Members from California, Oregon,
Washington, Idaho, Wyoming, Nevada, Montana, Alaska, Alberta and British Columbia will be present,
while at least one or two officials

from the head office in New York
are expected to attend the conclave.
Mr. Peden is in charge of arrangements.

Two other conventions will be held in the city in the near future,
the Pacific Logging Conference
opening on October 2, followed later in the month by the British Columbia Hospitals Association annual conference.

week Attorney-General Wismer
gave reasons why Chinese and Japanese residents in the province will be disarmed for the present. Mr.
Wismer said, in part:

"The object of the order in council for the registration of guns is to disarm our enemies, no matter of what nationality, and also to preserve law and order. Under the latter head only it has been thought desirable to refuse registration of arms to Japanese and Chinese residents."

"This decision has not been reached on account of their racial origin or nationality, but because Canada is in a state of war, and in view of the hostilities between China and Japan and the increasing bitterness between people of these two races, it is felt that it would be dangerous, if certain exigencies should arise, that they should be in possession of weapons.

"The loyal members of the two races will welcome this decision, even if it means a small sacrifice of what the native-born will regard as a right. With the views of the remainder we are not concerned."

Provincial Department of Education Is Seeking Trustees' Co-operation

Circular letters were sent out to all British Columbia school boards
this week, drawing attention to the required formation of cadet corps at larger institutions, and provision for squad and platoon drill without arms where corps cannot be formed.
The action was taken following recent announcement by Hon. Dr. G.
M. Weir that cadet corps training was to be restored.

Cadet instruction has been again
authorized throughout the province,
and encouragement of the formation of corps is being fostered by the Department of Education, in association with local trustee boards
at many points. While the plan can be made mandatory, voluntary co-operation is being sought first as the readiest means of reviving the system throughout the province.

At institutions where full corps
cannot be formed, physical education will be made to include elementary squad and platoon drill,
without arms, as the basis of such training. This will apply to all boys who are physically fit, from Grades VII and VIII onwards. It is believed that junior and senior high schools will be able to establish corps, with Federal and Provincial assistance as to equipment. School boards are being asked to take the necessary steps to comply.

The mother took her little daughter into a shoe store to buy her a pair of play shoes. Before the little girl would consent to even try on a pair she said to the clerk, "Can these shoes run fast?"

Until two seasons ago, when she went under the management of John Golden, who will present her in Samson Raphaelson's brilliant comedy, "Skylark," at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Saturday evening, she had never been seen on the Pacific Coast. Then she was seen in San Francisco and Los Angeles in Rachel Crothers' play, "Susan and God."
Every effort was made to include the Northwest in that tour, but it could not be accomplished.

Miss Lawrence is held in the same high esteem as Helen Hayes and Katharine Cornell. Her engagements everywhere are held as events and it seems safe to assume that Victoria will not be the exception.

REFUGEE SHIP REACHES PORT

American Legion Passed Through Mined Area
North of Scotland

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—After a potentially perilous voyage, the United States Army transport
American Legion, arrived in New York Harbor today with more than 800 American refugees.

The voyage, which began at Pristina, Finland, August 16, carried the vessel through mined areas
north of Scotland at a time when Germany was proclaiming unrestricted warfare in British waters.

Norwegian Crown Princess Martha and her children, fleeing from Scandinavia, were taken off the American Legion down the bay by a coast guard cutter. They landed at the Battery, where arrangements
had been made to take them immediately to the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

The reception at the Battery probably was the least spectacular ever accorded visiting royalty. A small crowd huddled in the rain
outside the covered pier and watched the Crown Princess and her retinue pass in a motor caravan.

The princess held her three-year-old son, Prince Harald, in her lap in the first car.

Mrs. Florence Jafray Harriman,
United States Minister to Norway,
and a number of other diplomats
were on board.

The royal party planned to be the guests of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt until the Crown Princess can find suitable quarters.

The American Legion was picked up 500 miles at sea by two United States destroyers, forming an honorary escort.

Almost all the 897 passengers were Americans fleeing countries under German and Russian domination.

B.C. FORESTS REPORTED DRY

Second Peak of Fire Season Approaching With Hunting Days

British Columbia was approaching the second peak of its forest fire season yesterday, with nearly 2,000
outbreaks reported since the first of Spring, according to the Provincial Forest Service. Approximately 150
new fires were reported in the last seven days, and 100 others were extinguished in the same period.

Vancouver, Prince Rupert, Port
George, Kamloops and Nelson
forest districts all reported increasing burn hazard due to continued run-dine and relative absence of showers. One hundred and thirty-nine fires were reported burning as the period ended, though these were mostly spot blazes and under control.

Increased use of the woods by the public next month, coinciding with the annual hunting season, is expected to produce the second fire peak of the year. Already the number of outbreaks to date this season was 700 more than in the corresponding period of last year. Except in a few instances, however,

the damage has not been heavy.

British Prisoners

TORONTO, Aug. 28 (CP).—Dr.

told the board of control today in response to a question, that British prisoners of war in Germany receive parcels sent to them by the Red Cross. "We don't have to trust
the German Red Cross," he said.
"The International Red Cross is constantly inspecting, and reports that all the parcels do get to our men."

They pleaded they had been unaware they were exceeding the maximum price set by the Government.

The Rumanian minister, Grigore
Gafencu, visited Premier Molotov and told him heavy Soviet troop concentrations on the new frontier
was causing uneasiness in Rumania.

"REPEATED VIOLATIONS"

A sharp communique described the alleged Hunro-Rumanian incident. It claimed this was but one instance of repeated violations of "Rumanian national air space."

The incident was said to have occurred at Satu-Mare in Transylvania, the area demanded by Hungary from Rumania.

Hungary countered tonight with a communique accusing the Rumanian air force of sending army
planes on reconnaissance flights
over Hungarian territory and denied one of its own bombers had crossed a Rumanian airport.

The Government, saying it had adopted a policy of "force" to repel Hungarian incursions, likewise took responsibility for an attack on another Hungarian bomber yesterday.

That plane was declared to have crossed the Rumanian frontier at Sacueni and to have been crippled
by a Rumanian pilot.

(In Budapest on Tuesday the Hungarian Foreign Office asserted that a Hungarian bomber had been shot down by a Rumanian plane in an "unprovoked" attack on Hungarian soil. Nothing was said about the loss of any plane in Rumania.)

PEACEMAKERS RUSH

VIENNA, Aug. 28 (AP)—Germany
and Italy, in their self-chosen role of "creators of a new Europe" and "peacemakers" in the Balkans, rushed diplomatic shock troops to this former Austrian capital tonight for a four-power conference intended to fashion an Axis style appeasement of the disquieting Rumanian-Hungarian dispute over Transylvania.

In the old Belvedere Castle the Axis diplomats tomorrow will exercise their "united weight" to bring Rumania and Hungary together.
Those were the words chosen by the Nazis, to describe the nature of the proceedings.

Tonight the route from the airdrome to the Hotel Imperial was lined with Nazi crowds greeting the Italian and German Foreign Ministers and their associates.

The German wireless minimized
the character of recent Russian-Rumanian border incidents, laid them to the fact the new Russo-Rumanian border is not clearly defined, and said it is not likely "anything further will result."

However, there was an unmistakable air of urgency both in the number of Axis diplomats sent to Vienna and the speed of their assembly.

JOHNSON WINS IN CALIFORNIA

Candidate for U.S. Senate Backed by Three Parties
in Primaries

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)— Californians of three political faiths
have picked Hiram W. Johnson, Republican critic of much of the Roosevelt Administration's foreign policy, as their candidate for the United States Senate.

Late returns from Tuesday's primary elections showed he had been renominated overwhelmingly by Republicans, Democrats and Progressives.

Johnson supported the President in 1932 but has since opposed many of the President's foreign policies.
Johnson's nomination on three tickets virtually assured his re-election to a fifth term.

ASSURED OF RE-ELECTION

Another United States Senator—

Theo G. Bilbo, of Mississippi, was renominated and assured of re-election Tuesday. Wednesday's ballot counting showed he had topped former Governor Hugh White by a sizeable majority in the Democratic primary. In Mississippi the Democratic nomination is equivalent to election.

Under California law, a candidate may seek nomination by parties other than his own; but to hold other nominations, he must carry his own ticket.

ESCAPED GERMAN PRISONERS HUNTED

Both were brought to this district
for safe-keeping after their capture in England, where Steyer is reported to have been wounded in the thigh.

At Ottawa, Defence Minister J. L.
Raisson disclosed the escape was engineered by other prisoners who partially buried Steyer and Kibart
in a trench in the prison recreation grounds during a football match.

BURROW UNDER FENCES

The other prisoners, numbering several hundred, returned to the compound with their guards. There,
the two fugitives escaped by burrowing under the first of two high wire fences and taking advantage of a washout under the second.

Two famed G.M.P. dogs—Bachchus and Pils—were taken to the camp by plane by two constables and were quickly on the scent. The dogs headed in a westerly direction.

Reports agreed as to the difficulties facing the fugitives since more than 100 miles of dense bush and rock lay between them and the nearest point on the United States Border. Only one main highway leads from the camp, and it is under constant watch.

President William Horman introduced Mrs. W. Griffith and Mrs.
T. W. Martindale, judges of the women's section and domestic science, and Edward Whyte and Cecil Tice, judges of agriculture and artistic displays. Male judges, he said, had been supplied by the Provincial Department of Agriculture.

WINS KINSMEN CUP

Cedar District won the Kinsmen
Cup for the finest exhibits. Don Wilson, receiving the trophy on behalf of the residents of the district.

Among the many outstanding booths were those operated by the Cedar Women's Institute and their youth training centre and Native
Daughters, Post No. 3, Nanaimo.

Eight thousand patches, placed by eighty-eight-year-old Mrs. Cassidy, of that district. It was one of many fine displays in the collection of needlework.

A pretty farmerette operated a spinning wheel made of apple boxes and drift wood, and explained the process of wool, making from the shearing of the sheep to the finished product. She also demonstrated the method of extracting colored dyes
from natural products, including berries and wood.

RELICS OF PAST

Well versed in the history of their exhibits, Native Daughters almost stole the show when it became general knowledge that they had on display miniature cradles salvaged
from the United States gunboat
Saranac, lost near Seymour Narrows
in 1876. Indians had salvaged the precious cradles now owned by Mrs.
Bert Horne, of this city. They showed christening robes of the finest embroidery made seventy-five years
ago, and Paisley shawls two and
three hundred years old, a tea caddy
dating back to 1840, and scores of modern articles that attracted interested crowds.

Few people in the Upper Island
knew of the wonderful dahlias
blooming in their midst. Mayor
Harrison declared, and the fruits
and vegetables exceeded all expectation, he said. The Civic Arena
and its modern loud-speaking apparatus was much appreciated by crowds in attendance. The fair continues Thursday. Generous contributors are donating their displays
to the Red Cross. Cedar District
took partial credit for a scarf stall,
where Mrs. Squires operated a loom.

Nanaimo Kinsmen Fair Is Opened by Minister

Hon. G. S. Pearson Praises Efforts of Clubmen—
Show Being Continued Today—Prize Winners
In Various Sections Announced

NANAIMO, Aug. 28.—With exhibits from most Upper Island points between Victoria and Merville, the Nanaimo Kinsmen Fair was officially opened today by Hon.
George S. Pearson, Minister of Labor, who praised the efforts of the club for initiating the movement.

"In doing so," the Minister said,
"they are resurrecting the old agricultural fair which was so helpful for many years here, until it was discontinued twenty years ago." He hoped it would continue to expand year after year to assist the development of agriculture and horticulture,
so important to this area.

Mayor V. B. Harrison welcomed patrons from near and far points on behalf of Nanaimo citizens.

President William Horman intro-

women's section and domestic sci-

Saranac, lost near Seymour Narrows
in 1876. Indians had salvaged the
precious cradles now owned by Mrs.
Bert Horne, of this city. They showed
christening robes of the finest em-
broidery made seventy-five years
ago, and Paisley shawls two and
three hundred years old, a tea caddy
dating back to 1840, and scores of
modern articles that attracted interested crowds.

Few people in the Upper Island
knew of the wonderful dahlias
blooming in their midst. Mayor
Harrison declared, and the fruits
and vegetables exceeded all expectation, he said. The Civic Arena
and its modern loud-speaking apparatus was much appreciated by
crowds in attendance. The fair
continues Thursday. Generous contributors are donating their displays
to the Red Cross. Cedar District
took partial credit for a scarf stall,
where Mrs. Squires operated a loom.

MORE DUCKS FOR HUNTERS

Sportsmen Will Have About 80,000,000 to Shoot
This Year

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (AP)—If the ducks had more knowledge they'd protest, but being ducks they probably don't even see the injustice in the fact that because there are about 25 per cent more of them this year, the hunters are going to get about 33 per cent more time to shoot them in the United States.

"The biggest crop in ten years,"
is the way Ray Benson, executive secretary of Ducks Unlimited, views
the outlook ahead of the time birds
are due from Canada. "Last year there were about 65,000,000. This year we expect upwards of 80-000,000, despite the fact that for a time early in the year the outlook
was bad."

"There wasn't any snow in parts of the Canadian breeding areas
until mid-February, and that territory relies on melting snow to fill the potholes and sloughs."

"Ducks are funny. They don't read the weather reports, so don't know there might not be enough water to carry them through. They just plunked down on their favorite breeding grounds and hoped for the best."

"As luck would have it, in June
the rains came in abnormal quantity, and the same was true in July. That break, combined with the fact that our campaign against crows and magpies, which raid the nests, has shown results, has assured a bumper crop."

Ducks Unlimited is a non-profit organization established to insure perpetuation of water fowl. If these understanding pigeons didn't know enough to protect themselves, somebody must do it for them.

This Ducks Unlimited has done by establishing breeding grounds, providing feed during tough winters, fighting the natural enemies of the birds, and by other means.

Soroptimist Club's War Charity Work Benefits by Fete

More Than $450 Cleared by Garden Party Held Yesterday at Beautiful Home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mayhew, The Uplands

A WAR charities enterprise was generously assisted yesterday when Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mayhew opened their gardens at "Kah-na-way," The Uplands, for the Soroptimist Club's fete, which netted more than $450 for various patriotic services of the organization.

Introduced by the club's president, Miss Marjorie Holmes, Mrs. Reed Paige Clark officiated at the formal opening. In wishing the club every success, she told patrons of the garden party something of the objects of the organization, composed of business women and which aimed to foster loyalty and high ideals of patriotism, to encourage civic enterprise and betterment of local conditions, to promote the spirit of service and true friendship among women.

Of four ambulances presented by Soroptimists of the British Empire to the Motherland during the last year, Canadian Soroptimists had presented one, and the American Federation at its meeting in Salt Lake City in June had undertaken the presentation of another.

Miss Holmes expressed appreciation of the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew in lending their beautiful gardens. The wide lawns, dotted with shade trees and commanding a glorious view of the sea, made an ideal setting for the many diversions, and guests also found pleasure in merely strolling about the herbaceous borders and flower-filled rockeries.

WELL PATRONIZED

Most generally patronized of the many features was afternoon tea, served at small flower-decked tables placed on the west terrace. This was in charge of Mrs. Fred Robertson and Miss Dora Atkins, with a number of young women assisting Mrs. Reed Paige Clark, Mrs. Mayhew and the patronesses, Dr. Olga Jardine, Mrs. W. Hobart Mosen and Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, were at the president's table. Mrs. T. W. Walker, one of the patronesses, sent her regrets at her inability to be present.

Mrs. B. M. Clarke was general convener of the fete, and conveners of stalls were, as follows: Home-cooking, Miss Alma Russell and Mrs. Hamblett; cut-flowers, Mrs. H. I. Maliek; candy stall, Miss Ruth Whitlock, president, and other members of the Venture Club, Mrs. Lorna Taylor, Miss Marie Thomas and Miss Elsie Finlayson; pop and ice cream, Mrs. Alice Macaulay and Miss Hope Hodges.

Miss Marjorie Holmes, assisted by Misses Mary Worsley and Yvonne Lowden, had charge of the prize table, which contained the autographed copies of Rachel Field's two presentation books, "All This and Heaven, Too," and "Hettie, Her First Hundred Years," and a letter sent by the author to Mrs. T. W. Walker, which helped to swell the proceeds at "5 cents a peep."

NUMEROUS GAMES

A loud-speaker system, in charge of Fred McGregor, proved a great asset in announcing contest results and other details. Mr. McGregor was also public auctioneer, and netted a handsome sum in auction-

ing of the beautiful chrysanthemum and gladiolus blooms exhibited by Mr. and Mrs. Melville Mayhew. Mrs. Alice Mayhew had another stand of fine flowers.

Mrs. R. E. Greenleaf, general convener of games, was assisted in the roulette contest by Mrs. Milton and Tommy Clarke, C. V. Miller, and P. A. Fitzsimmons had charge of the horse racing, P. Shrimpton and Bole Knight had the bingo table; Phil Taylor and several assistants had the clock golf and putting.

There were also the "lady of a thousand pockets" (Miss Janet Henderson), a candid camera man, two fortune tellers, three lady pipers in costume, and several cigarette girls, and the Venture Club operated a darts contest. "Hit Hitter" was one of the Elks Club contests.

In charge of the gate were Miss Nellie Jones, Miss Doris Holmes and Miss Mary Lawson.

Presentation By Church to Dr. A.S. Imrie

Last Friday evening many members and friends of Emmanuel Baptist Church gathered in the Sunday school hall to say farewell to Rev. Dr. A. S. Imrie and his wife, the former Queenie Shields, on their departure for Toronto.

G. F. Waites, moderator, was in the chair, and paid tribute to the unflinching devotion and faithfulness of Dr. Imrie during his pastorate of almost seven years, both in the pulpit and in the homes of the congregation.

Rev. F. W. McKinnon, of Douglas Street Baptist Church, added words of warm appreciation of Dr. Imrie as a brother pastor, as a friend, and for his contribution to the ministerial association of this city. It was mentioned with regret that Rev. G. A. Reynolds, of First Baptist, was absent from the city on holiday.

William Dismore, chairman of the trustees board, expressed the regard members and friends felt for Dr. and Mrs. Imrie, and regret at their departure, but assured them of all the good wishes that went with them. He presented Dr. Imrie with a black Morocco brief case. Vera Pearson gave Dr. Imrie a tall-tan rose buttonhole, and Mrs. Imrie an arm bouquet of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

Mrs. M. Bancroft, president of the women's guild, on behalf of all the members and friends of the church, presented Mrs. Imrie with a fitted over-night case, and mentioned the years of faithful service that Mrs. Imrie, as Miss Shields, had given the church in Sunday school and young women's work.

Dr. and Mrs. Imrie made appropriate remarks, recalling their many happy memories and friendships here, and said they were looking forward to further opportunities of service in their new field in Toronto.

Women's Institutes Open Sessions in Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Aug. 28 (CP).—Discussions of special war work, maintenance of normal home life throughout the war, and new agricultural possibilities in Canada topped the opening day of the provincial convention of Women's Institutes here today.

Approximately 150 delegates from all parts of the province attended the first session of the three-day meeting, held biennially. The meeting was opened by Mayor Lyle Telford, who welcomed delegates to the city.

WOMEN'S RESPONSIBILITY

Mrs. H. McGregor, of Penticton, provincial president, told delegates that Canadian women must assume responsibility for maintaining home life on an even keel during the war. She said that although the institutes had valuable war work to do, this was an addition to seeing that drama, the arts, and music were included in their home life, and that the home was conducted in a normal manner. The 4,500 members in British Columbia were at present working on numerous wartime projects. These included knitting, canning, refugee work, and numerous other projects, Mrs. McGregor said.

J. B. Munro, deputy minister of agriculture, said that it was the "duty and opportunity" of Canadian farmers to produce Canada's own flax, from which essential linen products were made. Canada's main normal source, Ireland, had been lost to the Dominion, he said.

He added that flax of first class quality could be grown in the Fraser Valley, and in the Nanaimo, Comox and Cowichan areas on Vancouver Island.

ADDRESSES MEETING

The convention was also addressed by Mrs. V. S. McLachlan, Victoria superintendent. Mrs. McLachlan said that the women's institutes provided public health nurses for rural districts, operated eighty-seven dental clinics and cared for 900 children in the Vancouver Island sanatorium, apart from constructive work within the home and community, in this province.

The financial report of the provincial group was made by Mrs. H. Pitt, of Hatzic, B.C., and Mrs. H. Leighton, Victoria, reported upon the institute's fund for crippled children in the province.

Niece Honored

Mrs. R. P. Howell and Miss Edith Howell were hostesses on Tuesday evening at Miss Howell's home, 1220 Rudin Road, at a delightful party in the form of a party shower for their niece, Miss Doreen Beere, a September bride-to-be. Summer flowers were arranged in the reception room. After all the guests had assembled, Miss Beere was presented with a dainty corsage bouquet of Sweetheart roses and swainsons, and her mother, Mrs. A. M. Beere, was given pink carnations and delphinium tips. In the living-room the guest of honor discovered a score of empty shelves attached to a set of empty shelves hidden behind red and white gingham curtains. Every balloon continued a clue concerning the whereabouts of the gifts, and as Miss Beere discovered them, the preserves, jams and jellies were set upon the shelves. Curtains were also given to her for use in her new kitchen. The evening was spent playing games. A lace cloth covered the supper table, which was centered with an arrangement of mixed Summer flowers in pastel shades in a white pottery container, and lighted by four pastel tapers in similar white holders. Candelabra with pastel tapers stood on the buffet. Mrs. A. M. Beere presided. The guests were Mesdames Beere, M. H. Turner, H. M. Sharpe, R. Wilson, J. A. M. Beere, R. Burns, J. O. Townsend, R. JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

FOOD FOR HEALTH

Most men know that their wives not only can make money go farther but that a greater variety of food is put before them daily than they could provide if they did the purchasing. It is true also that women know more about food—starches, proteins, fats, minerals and vitamins—than do men.

In order that not only every housewife but every husband, father and child in Canada shall know the facts about food and nutrition, the Canadian Medical Association has placed a booklet, "Food for Health in Peace and War," in every home in Canada. The preface says: "This book was prepared to help you protect the health of your family. It is based on what doctors and scientists have learned about food through years of study and research. By eating the proper kind and amount of food, you are protecting yourself and your family against the diseases which go along with war—tuberculosis and influenza—and which spread in the period immediately following the war."

The very first paragraph gives a list of the "protective" foods, the foods that give strength and energy, and are particularly helpful in "protecting" against sickness and ill health.

The protective foods are milk and milk products; potatoes and other vegetables; whole grain breads and cereals; raw fruits and canned tomatoes; eggs, meat and fish. These foods, together, supply nearly all the substance necessary for good health. The advice is "always eat your protective foods. You can then add whatever else you like and can afford." The booklet then outlines the amounts and kinds of foods for one adult, one adult and one child one to ten years; two adults and one child one to ten years of age, right hints.

It is certainly a real step forward for families to have this helpful scientific information in such a little book, kept always in the kitchen, particularly in these days when all must be at their physically.

Difficulties are meant to rouse and not to discourage.

Squire: "I hear that your son has joined up, Mrs. Murphy. What branch of the service has he joined?" Mrs. Murphy: "Well, I don't rightly know, sir. In his last letter he told me he was in balloon corps."

BERMUDA STOP SAVES DELAYS

American Ships Bound for Lisbon Pick Up Navicerts At British Port

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (AP).—American carriers of mail between the United States and Lisbon are stopping at Bermuda because the American Export Lines chose that point for examination by British officials; preference to Gibraltar or other ports, it was learned last night.

The stop at Bermuda has the effect of allowing virtually all European mail to the United States to be examined by British censors. The only mail to escape this is that carried by Pan-American Clippers, which make a direct flight to and from Lisbon, Portugal, if the weather permits—but stop at Bermuda if the weather is bad.

LINE GIVEN CHOICE

British Embassy officials in Washington said they had told the American Export Lines, only United States operator between America and Lisbon—the only European outlet open to American ships—that they would have to submit to the British blockade examination at some point and the line chose Bermuda.

British consulate officials here said a stop at Bermuda "might be one of the conditions" under which a navicert—an effect of a ship's passport through British contraband control—would be issued to an American vessel. They do not demand that American ships agree to censorship of mail cargoes as a prerequisite to the issuance of the certificates.

EXPLAINS SITUATION

L. R. Leach, British consul in charge of commercial activities, described as "utterly untrue" reports that the two United States firms had been told they must agree to censorship at Bermuda.

"We simply say to a ship that is carrying mail or passengers, 'You cannot have a navicert—except under certain conditions,'" Leach explained, "but, if for instance, a ship were to make a British port a stop en route, that might be one of the conditions and the ship would receive a navicert."

A ship without a navicert—which certifies its cargo has been examined and passed by British authorities—could be halted on the high seas by the British contraband patrol and taken to the nearest control point for examination.

SUPPLY BRANCH SETUP CHANGED

Executive Committee Dissolved and Appointed To New Posts

OTTAWA, Aug. 28 (CP).—Munitions Minister C. D. Howe announced last night the executive committee of the Department of Munitions and Supply has been dissolved and its members have been appointed to important administrative posts within the department.

Col. W. C. Woodward, of Vancouver, former chairman of the executive committee, and Col. W. A. Harrison, of Saint John, have been appointed executive assistants to the Minister.

Mr. Howe explained the executive committee, formed of dollar-a-year men, had been created to undertake the development and expansion of the department during the initial months of the department's operations.

DECENTRALIZES EFFORTS

"The members of the former committee now will continue to serve in the various divisions of the department they have helped to create," said Mr. Howe. "In short, the growth of the department has made it necessary further to decentralize its efforts."

Duties now assigned to other former members of the committee are largely those which they fulfilled on the committee. Posts now filled by them are:

Ralph P. Bell, Halifax, director-general of aircraft production; Henry Borden, K.C., Toronto, general counsel; R. A. C. Henry, Montreal, economic adviser; J. P. D. Malkin, Vancouver, director-general of purchases; Lieut.-Col. W. E. Phillips, of Toronto and Ottawa, president of Research Enterprises, Ltd.; Hon. Gordon Scott, Montreal, financial adviser, and E. P. Taylor, Toronto, joint director-general of munitions production.

Singing Contest For Men of the Forces Planned

One of the features of the civic celebrations committee's "cheer-up" sing-song and dance, which is scheduled for this evening at Beacon Hill Park at 7:30 o'clock, will be the competition for the army, navy and air force singing teams, limited to ten to each team. The teams will sing popular airs, the audience will be the judges, and the winning team will be awarded a suitable prize.

This competition is an added feature to the singing, old-time dancing and novelty events which have drawn huge crowds during the past few weeks. The registration and introduction of visitors will be conducted under the management of John Baxter, J. Harrison and Alderman W. H. Davies. Frank Tupman will again act as master of ceremonies, and an old-time orchestra will supply the music.

BACK TO SCHOOL

MERCHANTS READY TO MEET NEEDS OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

Pupils Will Return to Their Studies Tuesday—Books, Clothing, Shoes and Supplies of Kinds Needed—Victoria Stores Well Stocked To Meet Rush of Buyers

SCHOOL bells will be ringing early next week. All over the country children will be trooping back to the classrooms, fresh from the long vacation. From the tiny tot, whose first adventure it is into the work and play of school, to the senior student who has already carved himself a niche in the social order of things, all have many needs for the coming term.

Tuesday will see the annual rush of children accompanied by their parents flocking to the stores to purchase school supplies of all kinds. The balance of this week will be a busy time for merchants as school clothes, shoes, and other necessities are secured.

Victoria stores are well prepared for the invasion, and a brisk business is anticipated in textbooks, stationery and all the requirements from draughtsmen's tools to the humble yet none the less essential eraser and rubber, ruler and scriber.

CLOTHING AND SHOES

Many of the children have just returned from holiday resorts by lake or seaside, with wardrobes badly in need of replenishment. Last year's clothes have been outgrown or have been relegated to the rag bag. Summer wear in all probability consisted of little more than bathing trunks and running shoes. A complete outfit is called for and must be secured within the next few days.

Clothes are needed that are smart yet sturdy enough to withstand the wear and tear of active play. The young miss in high school demands

Is Ready for School Again

There's nothing new or strange about school for eight-year-old Stanley Pollard. He feels himself to be quite an old-timer now, and, armed with his Canadian Reader, is ready to begin studies in a higher grade next Tuesday.

SPORTING GOODS

The list of stores and business houses ready to supply school children with their needs is long. Sporting goods stores are ready with bicycles, the greatest asset that any school child can have. Then, too, there is the equipment for a new season's games. School means the packing of daily lunches in many cases, and here the food stores are ready to do their part, offering dainties that will make the healthful foods palatable to growing appetites.

Throughout the city the return to school means fresh activity, a settling down to a new routine, marking the commencement of a fresh season. Everywhere Victoria stores are ready to do their part in equipping the youngsters for the coming term.

EXHIBITION ENTRIES

All those intending to enter exhibits in the seventy-ninth annual Fall Fair at the Willows from September 7 to 14, inclusive, are advised that the closing date is Saturday. A special office has been opened in the Scollard Building for the convenience of exhibitors. This office is open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. daily.

SMARTNESS IN STYLES FOR SCHOOL GIRL

Fashion Picture Is Exciting—Ensemble Gains in Popularity

This Fall finds children's styles stepping ahead alongside those of their elders. The most popular silhouette remains the flared type, though a bit modified. More all around pleated skirts and group-pleated skirts appear. The gimp dress is again the favorite. (Here let it be said we are a jump ahead of the grownups, for the gimp dress is "latest fashion" news for big sister's.) Striped or plain chambray, plaid or checked gingham and pique continue to be popular, together with flannel, velveteen and pin whale corduroy. Prints are always good and they are especially quaint and colorful this Fall. Waistlines of dresses are still fitted for the most part.

SHIRT-MATCH IMPORTANT

The ensemble is gaining popularity. Jacket and skirt, the "mix-em" and "match-em" are more popular than ever.

Coats are mostly princess flared or box styles. Some introduce side pleats in front and back or box pleats in back—usually with a half belt at back waistline. Capes and hoods are on many of the new coats. The fly front closing appears on fitted coats this season as well as on the popular box models.

Red is the important color of the season. It appears in lovely pottery rose shades, also in wine and cherry tones. Bright red combines well in checks or plaids with the everlasting favorite, blue—especially the clear, bright navy that is almost a royal. Dark green, blue green and soft grey blue are very good.

All in all, the children's fashion picture is most exciting and it presents the widest choice of styles, fabrics and colors ever available to mothers throughout Canada.

Ex-Fire Chief Of Nelson Dies

NELSON, Aug. 28 (CP).—Murdock Henderson Maiores, sixty-five, Nelson fire chief since 1924 until his retirement last year, died on Monday night in hospital here.

A native of Dingwall, N.S., he was a sailor before coming to British Columbia in 1911.

He later became assistant fire chief for New Westminster, and it was his able work at a big dock fire in the Royal City that earned him recommendation for the post he subsequently took here.

His widow and one son survive.

OBEY RULES FOR SAFE BICYCLING

Cyclists Are Urged to Observe Regulations and Ride Carefully

With the start of school once more the bicycle takes its place as the ideal form of transportation to and from school. It is the cheapest, the most healthful way of covering the distance. But there are essential rules that every boy and girl must observe to keep within the law and ride in safety.

Rules for safe riding are: Obey all traffic regulations, such as red and green lights, one-way streets, stop signs and hand signals. Ride in a straight line and do not weave in and out of traffic. Have proper lights front and rear.

Give proper signals. Give pedestrians the right-of-way.

Look out for cars at crossings—and pulling out of parking places. Do not hitch on to vehicles. Do not carry another person on your bicycle.

Keep your bicycle in good condition.

Always ride carefully.

What Today Means

"VIRGO"

If August 29 is your birthday the best hours for you on this date are from 9:15 to 11:15 a.m., from 1:15 to 3:15 p.m., and from 7:15 to 9:15 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:15 to 9:15 a.m., from 5:15 to 7:15 p.m., and from 9:15 to 11:15 p.m.

Do not expect things to be done with a mechanical precision, for the human element must be considered. If you expect to handle things in a reasonable manner. Faith, and faith alone, will be the sustaining medium for those who are discouraged to regain confidence in their ability to overcome the difficulties confronting them. Comparisons will be odious, so be careful how you report to them. Your imagination might be responsible for your having many queer ideas unless your common sense reasoning prevents it from indulging in freaks of fancy. Experience is the best teacher, so do not forget any lessons that you have received in her school. Stick to facts and you may escape having a good deal of explaining to do for fictionizing events, especially if in doing so you have given them an importance they do not deserve. Married and engaged couples might do well to remember: "to a rational being it is the same thing to act according to nature and according to reason." If a woman and August 29 is your birthday through threat and enterprise your economic problems are apt to be solved. Your moral courage, pluck and ability to bear up under any burden adversity might have imposed on you, will win you Fortune's smiles. Advice is always worth considering, even if for adventure that is often responsible for its getting into complicated situations. Parental praise and encouragement often proves helpful, so it ought to be freely given. If a man and August 29 is your natal day, develop an individuality of your own, and do not be too easily swayed by public or private opinion. Avoid contracting the habit of being too loquacious, especially in discussing with strangers your own or public affairs. Your results as a dentist, engineer, architect, lawyer, doctor, clergyman, salesman, journalist, author, actor, or businessman, are apparently going to come up to your expectations, and they will give you ample cause to feel proud of your accomplishments. (Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Walter Hagen Surprises By Two Fine Victories; Demaret Loses to Kirk

Veteran Professional Registers Win Over Sellers
And Ghezzi in P.G.A. Golf Tournament—Facts
McSpaden Today—Sarazen Survives—
Dudley Sinks 212-Yard "Ace"

HERSHEY, Pa., Aug. 28 (AP)—Some of the young sprouts shot better golf, but Walter Hagen had more fun than anybody as the Professional Golfers' Association championship went through the first two eighteen-hole rounds of match play today.

The field was reduced to sixteen competitors, including Hagen. The five-time former professional champion carried all the gallery there was around with him as he laid it on to younger adversaries. He was beating tonight like a new moon and raring to get at his next announced victim, Harold (Jug) McSpaden, 1939 Canadian champion, whom he engages in a thirty-six-hole marathon tomorrow.

The Hags shot even par for thirty-five holes today as he eased out young Gil Sellers, of Hot Springs, Ark., 1 up; and Vic Ghezzi, of Deal, N.J., 2 and 1.

Gene Sarazen, one of Hagen's oldest rivals, still was in there too, after opening victories over Stan Staszewski, of Winsted, Conn., 4 and 3; and Ray Mangrum, 2 and 1. Sarazen faces the considerable job tomorrow of trying to lick Henry Picard, the defending champion.

Today's play ran remarkably true to form, considering the "sudden death" nature of eighteen-hole matches. The only real big shots defeated were Jimmy Demaret and Craig Wood.

DEMARET BEATEN
Demaret, the year's second biggest money winner, was beaten by Dick Metz, a comparative unknown from Framingham, Mass., 2 and 1, in a second round match. Wood bowed in the second round to Jim Foulis, of Hinsdale, Ill., on the nineteenth hole.

Dick Metz, of Chicago, the medalist, continued to shoot the most brilliant golf of the meeting as he beat John Thoren, of Auburndale, Mass., 3 and 2; and Ky Lafoon, of Chicago, by the same score.

Others remaining in the running included Sam Snead, this year's Canadian champion; Paul Runyan and Ben Hogan.

Long-hitting Jimmy Thomson, of Chicopee, Mass., was defeated by Alex Gerlak, of Catskill, N.Y., 1 up. Paul Runyan, twice former winner, shot a birdie two on the eighteenth hole to beat Al Zimmerman, of Portland, Ore., 1 up.

Herman Zeiser, of Akron, O., cut loose with a brilliant stretch of golf to defeat Lighthouse Harry Cooper.

BOMBERS WILL BE WITHOUT FRITZ HANSON

Canadian Grid Champions Lose Star and Several Other Men

By CHARLES EDWARDS
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)
WINNIPEG, Aug. 28.—The Canadian football champions, Winnipeg Blue Bombers, open the new season this week without their greatest offensive and defensive stars but with a remodelled team so strong in reserves that Coach Reg Threlfall has every hope they will win a fourth consecutive Western title.

Bombers have lost seven members of the team that beat Ottawa Rough Riders, 8-7, in the Dominion final last December. Fritz Hanson, fleet halfback whose sensational dashes were highlights of the Winnipeg Grey Cup victory at Hamilton in 1935 and at Ottawa, said yesterday he will not change his decision to retire.

Hanson, former North Dakota State College star, was the club's most dangerous running halfback. Martin (Butch) Gainer, twenty-five-year-old former University of Dakota lineman, who was the key man in Bombers' secondary defence, has returned to the United States.

Both Hanson and Gainer were selected for the Canadian Press Western Inter-Provincial Union All-star team each year since it was instituted in 1937. Hanson was unanimous choice in 1938 and Gainer was given a complete vote the past two years. Jeff Nicklin, 190-pound flying wing and another three-time all-star, is a lieutenant in the Canadian Active Service Force and it is doubtful if he will play this season.

IN THE NAVY
Halfback Bill Bovlin retired because of a knee injury. Inside Wing Eddie Kushner is in the wing; the thirty-seven-year-old outside wing, Herbie Moberley, finally hung up his cleats; and Martin Platz, an end who graduated from junior ranks last year, is with Regina Roughriders. Both Kushner and Moberley were with the 1935 champions.

Filling the gaps are young Winnipeg athletes developed at Bombers' Spring and Autumn training camps by Threlfall, who came here two years ago from South Dakota State College, where he was head coach.

Until Wayne Shirley, South Dakota halfback, returns from The Pas, Man., where he has been employed, only four former United States college players are with Bombers—backfielders Greg Kabat and Art Stevenson, Outside Wing Bud Marquardt and Herb Pesel, middle.

Giants Climb Into Third Place Tie in National League

Hand Lon Warneke His Eighth Straight Hurling

Creeps Closer to First Division

By The Canadian Press
Pittsburgh Pirates, driving hard for a first-division National League berth, snatched two games from the last-place Philadelphia Phillies yesterday, 5-0 and 5-2. Rip Sewell scored his second consecutive shut-out and twelfth victory against three defeats.

A fifteen-hit rampage at the expense of three Chicago Cub pitchers gave Boston Bees an 8-3 victory.

Dick Erickson, Bee hurler, helped with two doubles that drove in three runs. It was his tenth victory.

New York Giants climbed into a tie with St. Louis Cardinals for third place in the National League by whipping the Cards, 5-2. The defeat ended Lon Warneke's string of eight straight hurling victories.

The second-division Chicago White Sox crept to within one game of the fourth-place Boston Red Sox, capturing the opener of a two-game series, 3-2.

A LONG TIME TO WAIT
Two doting mothers were discussing their children, evacuated since the outbreak of war.

"It's dull without little Johnny," sighed one. "I haven't got used to the peace of the house yet. And I was reading in the papers that the war might last forty years!"

"What?" gasped the other in dismay. "Then my Milly will be fifty-one by the time she gets home!"

Next Game Tomorrow

Pitzer & Nex vs. Tillicum Athletics, Royal Athletic Park, at 5:45 o'clock.

Manager "Scotty" Robinson's Til-

licum Athletics moved out in front

in the city baseball championship

play-downs last night at the Royal

Athletic Park, when they defeated

Pitzer & Nex, 1939 Rithet Cup winners, 5-1. The sixth game of the series will be played tomorrow evening at the Caledonia Avenue ball

lot, and another triumph for the clubbers will give them the pennant.

After playing smart, snappy ball

in four earlier fixtures, the club

finally broke under the strain of a light championship series and looked

a little ragged. Gasmen, in particular, had a bad evening and just seemed unable to do the right thing

at the right time.

Tillicum Athletics only punched out

four safeties, but wobbly fielding coupled with their speed on the paths enabled them to push across

five big runs, the largest number of tallies registered in any of the five play-off fixtures.

Gasmen got to Lloyd Cann, club-

bers' ace hurler, for a quartette of base knocks, but were unable to score until the last frame. The run came after two men were out and after Cann's clubmates booted a pair of chances to retire the third batter. The single tally prevented

the Athletics' star moundmen from checking in with his third successive shutout in play-off ball.

MURRAY IS WILD

Lorne Murray, regular shortstop,

who is capable of doing a superb job

on the mound, started for Pitzer &

Nex nine in another surprise move

by Manager Bert Nex. The young

right-hander had trouble locating the

"dish" giving up five free trips

to the initial sack in the two and one-third innings he worked on the hill. His mound was wobbly behind him, and this did not help matters

one bit.

Duff Waddell, gasmen's ace left-hander, followed Murray to the hillcock and pitched good ball, allowing only two safeties in two and two-third frames. He fanned one.

members will be W. F. Drysdale,

E. O. Taylor and another to be chosen. All will work with French and British experts now developing the new tank.

BREN GUNS ARE GOOD

Col. Ralston expressed satisfaction with the production of Bren guns at the John Inglis Company in Toronto.

Inspection had assured him that the guns produced were "a first-class

article."

By December 15 he expected the 4th Division to be armed with Bren

and light machine guns. Acquisition of Bren gun carriers should begin within a month.

Asked whether some men oversees were being sent home as a result of disabilities, he said that was

so. The department was not forgetting them and they were being rehabilitated through the interdepart-

mental committee on rehabilitation.

FUELMEN BEAT
LONGSHOREMENHammer Out 10-8 Victory
in Second Game of City
Softball Play-Offs

Driving over four runs in the last

inning as darkness crept over Central Park, Harknett Fuel, "B" section softballers, last night upset the dope bucket by defeating Victoria

Longshoremen, 10-8, in the second game of the best-of-three series for the city championship.

Fuelmen went to work on "Rogers"

Hornby, stevedores' starting hurler,

and drove him from the mound with a fusillade of base blows in the first frame. Five big runs were on the score sheet before Manager Jim

Lackie used the "hook" and replaced

Hornby with Ralph Bonner, Long-shoremen's ace pitcher.

Held scoreless for two frames,

freight jiggers started to roll in the third inning and scored six runs

before the session ended. They added two more in later stanzas to bring their total to eight.

Trailing by two markers in the last of the fifth, fuelmen finally got to Ralph Bonner for stinging base

knocks and scored four runs before the game was called.

GAME TONIGHT

Stevedores and Brunson's Veterans meet this evening at Royal

Athletic Park in the final of the Calvert Cup series. The fixture is scheduled for 6 o'clock.

Tuesday evening the two clubs

battled to a 4-4 tie in the Pacific

Dog Cafe Cup final, and "big apple" followers are looking forward to another great battle.

lar meeting of the board of school

cluding the school nurse.

A senior matriculation class will be held this school term. The minimum number of applications have been received and others are expected before school commencement.

It was decided to charge a fee of

$2 monthly per subject for those taking only part of a course.

The board members will take the oath of allegiance to His Majesty,

BUILDING PROGRAMME

Chairman Vandecastey reported

the Summer building programme at the schools was nearing completion.

Work was in progress on the windows of the new assembly room,

which can accommodate a maximum of 160. The chairman noted that alterations and additions of the past three years to the school buildings had brought every inch of space into use, and that future

programmes concerned with the present buildings must be directed towards interior painting, particularly where the walls had been changed, and to the outside painting of all the schools. He promised

a detailed report for the next meeting.

It was reported that J. J. Andrews, one of the high school teachers, was in camp training with

the Non-Permanent Active Militia,

and would not be available at school for the first four days of school opening. The board authorized the appointment of a substitute for the period of Mr. Andrews' absence.

Because it was felt the time before commencement was too short

to permit any required adjustments,

the formal application to the Department of Education for recognition of Ladysmith as a Junior-

Senior High School centre, was deferred until the beginning of next year.

Mr. T. Spargo, supervising principal of the schools, who was present

at the meeting, reported he was

New Airplane Motor Will Be Baked in Oven Like Pie

OAKLAND, Calif., Aug. 28 (AP) — Exclusive manufacturing rights for Lloyd M. Taylor's airplane motor, designed for speedy wartime production at a low cost, have been obtained by a Canadian company, the young inventor announced here.

A British Columbia firm, the Vancouver Sales & Appraisal Company, expects to manufacture the engine in quantity, Taylor said.

Taylor, an Oakland truck factory mechanic, said his motor is made of sheets stamped from steel, cemented with a special flux, and baked in an electric oven like a pie.

It has twelve cylinders, made from steel tubing, and is cooled by liquid. The inventor asserted it would develop 1,250 horse power, although it weighs only 1,000 pounds.

Manufactured in quantity, it would cost only a third as much as a conventional engine, he declared.

Recently Taylor announced he had shown the motor to representatives of the Ford Motor Company and to United States Government aviation experts.

British Vessels Are Barred From Indo-China Ports

HONGKONG, Aug. 28 (CP) — British authorities last night suspended shipping clearances for French Indo-China and recalled British vessels en route there.

The reason was not given, but it was recalled that Hongkong-Indo-China shipping has been suspended temporarily three times in the past two months pending clarification of the French attitude toward the war. Indo-China's exact position has not been clear since signing of the French-German armistice in June.

Both girls are quite busy, they write Captain H. Seymour-Biggs. There is no leave to be had. Both girls were doing office work at the time of writing. Miss Moore is private secretary to the R.S.M. and L.A.D. officer, doing work connected with air raids. For a time Miss Yeo was with the B.E.F. in the Army Transport Service during the Dunkerque evacuation, but is with her chum again.

Engineer and Two Hoboes Hurt When Milwaukee Train Leaves Track

CHICAGO, Aug. 28 (AP) — A freight train derailment followed by a week of a local passenger train early today on the Milwaukee Road at Marvin, S.D., injured at least three men, the railroad general office announced.

The freight was derailed first in a "substantial accident," a spokesman said, although no one was injured in that mishap last night.

Early today a local which left Aberdeen, S.D., for Minneapolis reached the location of the earlier freight derailment, where a detour track had been built to avoid the wrecked freight train "too fast" and was wrecked.

The engine, mail car and at least one coach overturned. The engineer and two hoboes riding on the train were injured severely and possibly the freemen also officials said. Details of the two accidents were not complete here.

Subscribe Money For Purchase of Tiger Moth Plane

POWELL RIVER, B.C., Aug. 28 (CP) — Contributed by residents of this British Columbia paper manufacturing town, an $8,000 Tiger Moth training plane will soon be among three being used at the Vancouver Flying School under the Empire air training plan.

A cheque for the amount was sent yesterday to Federal authorities, the result of a drive among residents of the district. Earlier, the Powell River Company itself had donated a plane.

I'LL WAIT FOR YOU

CHAPTER X

"Saturday night, Edwina. Cock-tails and dinner at the club." "Fine. You know my house." "I couldn't miss it." "If I knew you better..." "I hope you will..."

Though her room was dark, she knew it was Amy who had come in. Knowing that she would come, Edwina had turned off the light so that Amy could not see that she had been crying. What was she crying about? During the year when she was wondering what was going to become of her she had not cried once, and now that she was home and in Amy's care the tears had rolled unchecked down her cheeks. How she had endured the past year amazed her now. Dropping in on friends who were at dinner and saying brightly, "Oh, I'm sorry. I thought you dined much later," in order to avoid paying for her dinner on an evening when she was not invited out. And saying to Barbara Carier, "I'm going to sell my mink coat, I'm thoroughly sick of the thing. Quite a bargain. Do you want it?" How tired her face got from wearing a forced smile! How weary she had become from trying to live up to the legend of Edwina Burke!

"Are you asleep?" Amy asked. "No. And don't go. I'm going to have a cigarette and I promise I won't let the bed afire. I'm used to smoking in the dark." When the red end of the cigarette glowed in the darkness, she said, "You've got to let me go tomorrow, Amy. I have a date with him on Saturday night. My clothes must be a sad sight. They're in the rumble seat. It probably hasn't occurred to him that I brought anything but myself. I want to get the house opened..."

She knew that Amy was smiling when she said, "I think I can arrange it, Edwina. He's—he's very nice, isn't he? That sounds deadly dull, but he isn't dull. He looks as if he's not of one place but of many places."

"You'll laugh at me. But—but what is love?" "Asking an old maid? Well, it seems to me that love is need. When two people can't do without each other, they're in love. I've seen so much of it—people separating but coming together again because they needed each other."

"Don't go getting ideas about me. I just thought your answer would be good. I'm not in love with anybody. And if there are people who think I'm still in love with Alan, they're wrong. I've outgrown that. It took a long time. It is the first love you always take too seriously and you don't ever quite forget because it hurt you and your pride. Once in her life a woman makes a complete fool of herself in order to know the answers the next time

"What is it then that you want, Edwina?"

Her heart jerked queerly. "I was just going to tell you. These hours here have been the queerest in my whole life. I believe. I think I know what I want now. Amy, am I too young to want peace and order in my life, and security? I want to get married. And I'm willing to give to marriage more than I'll get. You know, when the most exciting things of my life were happening to me, I wasn't happy. My heart seemed to be waiting—for something else. I know now. It isn't the love I dreamed about when I was eighteen but, as I said, peace and order and security. I'd like to have children. But I've got to marry a man with money. I've got to keep the house..."

"Your father doesn't need the house as a monument to him..." "I know. There are banks and churches and this hospital. More important, the memory inside of me. But I can't sell the house. I can't! I can't have anyone else living in it—his house!"

Amy said dryly, "And you think young Mr. Alexander is a likely prospect?" She was plotting again, knowing what the last plot had cost her, and she was trembling in the dark for Amy's disapproval when she said, "Most of the things I've done were out of pure selfishness. All I've had to do was to reach out and pick what I wanted—like the best apple from the tree. But this time I'm not selfishness but duty." She bit into her lip and she was conscious of the hardness of her voice. "You may think of me what you like. I know what I've got to do. I'm not going to sell the house, Amy.

I'll burn it to the ground first..." "You're tired, Edwina. Do you want me to give you something to make you sleep?" "No, thanks. Not tonight." Long after Amy had gone, Edwina was staring wide-eyed in the darkness.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sick and the world looks pink. A mere bowel movement doesn't always get it over. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "top and up." Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of a catalyst but have no catalyst or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Blatantly refuse anything else. 25¢

Contracts awarded in British Columbia by the Federal Department of Munitions and Supply totaled $280,835 during May, with business for the next quarter not yet available. W. Lloyd Craig reported to the Provincial Department of Trade and Industry yesterday from Ottawa.

May contracts brought total awards within the province up to $22,248,037 since the start of the war. E. G. Rowebottom, deputy minister of trade and industries, said.
